Article 15

November

Every child has the right to meet with other children and to join groups and organisations, as long as this does not stop other people from enjoying their rights.

During the discussion, it was agreed that play, and socialising in groups with other children, is a vital part of growing up. If children are excluded it can make them unhappy. However, it was also acknowledged that some children can have a negative impact on a group when joining in, so the final line of the article was deemed appropriate— joining in should not stop others from enjoying their rights.

So come on Paschal Baylon pupils! Include others in your play, and avoid spoiling play for others when you join in with them.

The Rights Ambassadors have chosen number 15 from the Convention on the Rights of the Child as November's 'Article of the Month'. This was chosen as it links in with November's National Anti-Bullying Week— an event St Paschal Baylon has participated in for many years.

Stamps, Stamps and More Stamps!

One of our ambassadors, Daniel Fenlon, suggested that we could raise money for Unicef by collecting new and used stamps. We thought this was a great idea and so Mrs Kelly, our governor representative, researched how we could go about this, and made Daniel's idea a reality! If you want to help raise money so that more children receive their rights, we ask that you bring in new first and second class stamps, used stamps, and even stamps from other countries

Please note: any used stamps must have less than 1cm of paper around the stamp. Make Daniel's idea a success—please bring in your stamps!

UNICEF believe that sport has the power to change children's lives and they're working to ensure that every child has the right to play.

BECAUSE EVERY CHILD IN THE WORLD HAS ONE THING IN COMMON. THEIR RIGHTS.

Sport and play are a crucial part of every child's life, according to Unicef. By taking part in sport, children learn to develop self-confidence, motivate themselves and lead active lifestyles. It's therefore crucial that sport is safe for children and Team Unicef is committed to making sport safer for all children around the world through their International Safeguards for Children in Sport.

Their incredible sporting partners and ambassadors use the power of sport as a tool to shine a spotlight on children's rights and to help raise valuable funds for their work with children.

October Competition Winner!

Thank you to all children who submitted an entry into our October competition to design a Christmas outfit for Ruby Rights. It was very hard to decide because they were all really, really good, however, after much deliberation, Chloe Vives from Year 6 was declared the winner. And you will soon have the pleasure of seeing Ruby Rights in all her Christmas glory!
