

Tom Palmer Liverpool FC Writing Competition

A message from the author Tom Palmer

I'd like to share with you that I have been asked to write about Liverpool FC's Greatest Moments in a new non-fiction book out later this year!

I have narrowed down my selection but if your pupils would like to nominate their greatest moments, they have a chance to win a set of books for your school and for themselves.

I hope it will be a fun literacy activity for your pupils as they only need to ask their family for their ideas and write a few words and I've set up a simple webpage to collect responses <https://tompalmer.co.uk/liverpools-greatest-moments/> !

To encourage them there is a chance for one entry to win a set of football books for themselves and for their school. Entries need to be in by Friday, 24.1.25.
